Contacting Kent Police

Your guide to getting in touch

Kent Police

In an emergency – call 999

An emergency is when crime is in progress, a suspected offender is nearby, someone is injured or being threatened, or there is a traffic collision involving injury or danger.

Only call 999 when you need immediate help.

Report online

Report non-emergency crime 24/7 using online services kent.police.uk/report

- Report a theft including shed or garage break-ins, vehicle break-ins or pickpocketing.
- Report anti-social behaviour including graffiti, criminal damage or nuisance behaviour.
- Report traffic offences including speeding, mobile phone use or aggressive driving.

Always dial 999 in an emergency.

Contact your local council for nuisance & environmental issues such as noise complaints, abandoned vehicles and fly-tipping.

Non-emergency – call 101

101 is the number to call to report crime and other police issues that do not require an emergency response. You don't need to dial any other number, just 101. You can also call 101 to speak to your local officer.

Each call costs 15 pence – no matter what time, how long your call lasts or if you call from a mobile.

We do not receive any of the call cost.

Text service for the deaf or speech impaired

If you have a hearing or speech impairment, use our textphone service 18000. Or text us on 999 if you've pre-registered with the emergency SMS service.

We are reliant on mobile phone networks. If you don't get a reply to your text quickly, try another way of contacting us, for example by calling 101 or 999 in an emergency.

What happens when you call us?

By calling 999 and requesting police, you will be transferred to our Force Control Room where we will ask you for your name and location. You will also be asked to give as much detail as possible about the incident so we can determine what police presence is required. Each call is judged on the circumstances and calls are prioritised.

If it is an emergency, we will let you know when officers are on their way. If it is not urgent you will be transferred to a non-emergency call handler who may ask for an appropriate time for an officer to call back or visit you to obtain more information.
